LAST SUMMER BREAKFAST!!

This Friday, August 3, 7:30 am at the Village Deli...Join us for the last breakfast before school starts! Vickie Provine and Jo Stong from the City of Bloomington's Housing and Neighborhood Development Department will speak about the Citizen's Academy and the student spin off from that, Youth Academy. You'll want to consider this free class that will take you through the functions of city government.

Breakfast will also give you some fall previews of Democratic Women's Caucus Activities, special events, and will tell you how you can get involved in our mission of getting women elected and involved in the political process.

If you have any announcements to make to the breakfast crowd, or the mailing list, please send them off ASAP! Email: regina@bluemarble.net We plan to have a news sheet at the breakfast to help with all those other events and activities that are so important to us politically and to our members.
